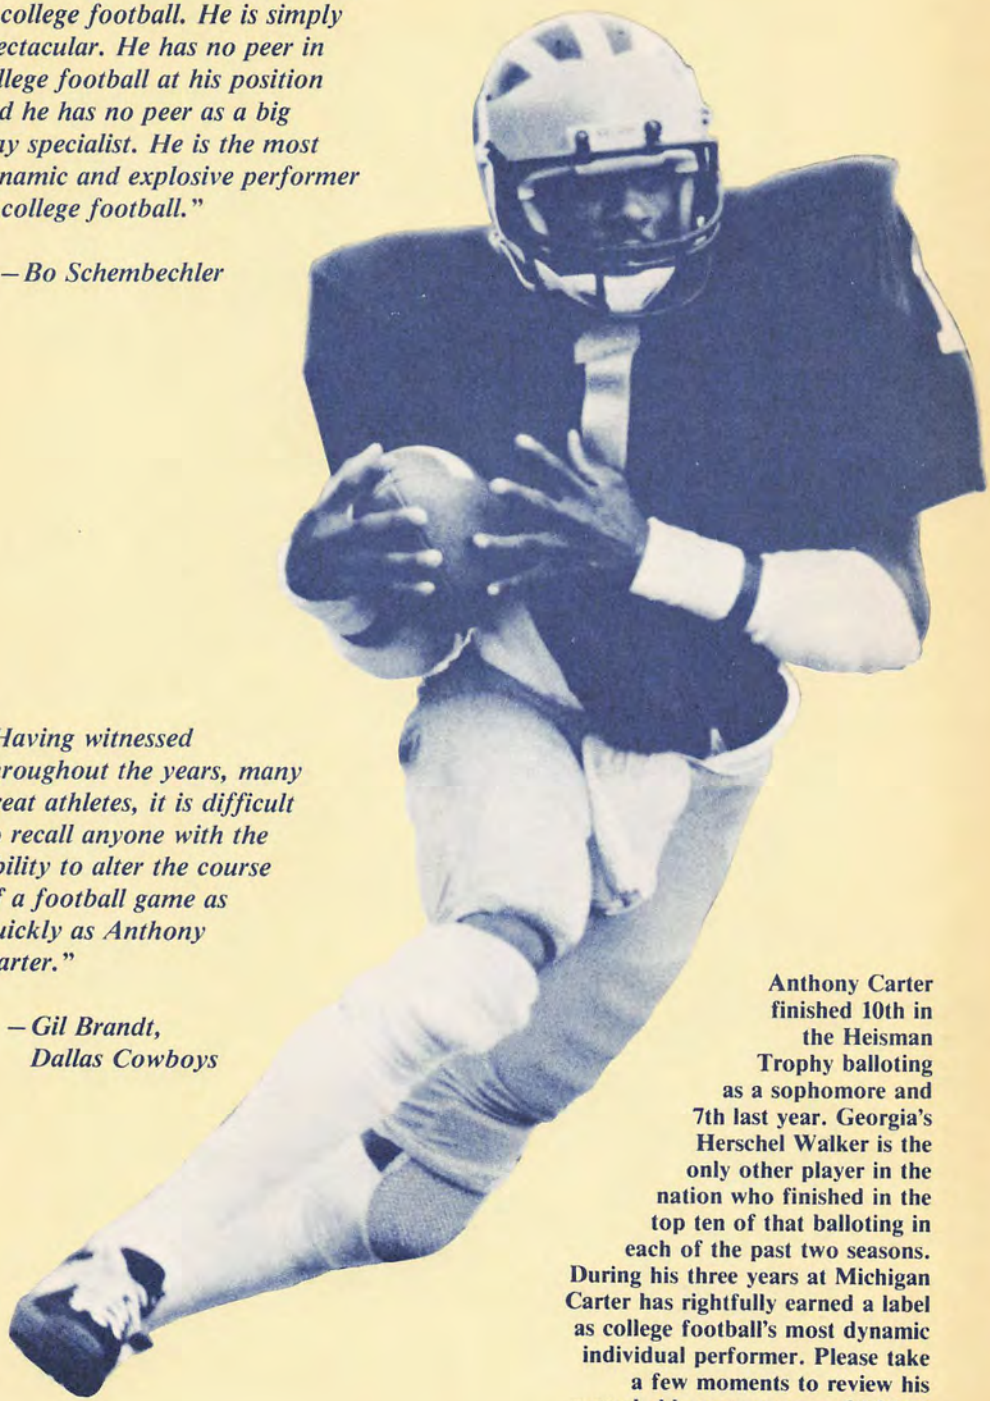
Heisman Trophy Candidate

Anthony Carter

GRIDIRON GUIDE 1982

"Anthony Carter is, without question, the most exciting player in college football. He is simply spectacular. He has no peer in college football at his position and he has no peer as a big play specialist. He is the most dynamic and explosive performer in college football."

– Bo Schembechler



"Having witnessed throughout the years, many great athletes, it is difficult to recall anyone with the ability to alter the course of a football game as quickly as Anthony Carter."

– Gil Brandt, Dallas Cowboys

Anthony Carter finished 10th in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a sophomore and 7th last year. Georgia's Herschel Walker is the only other player in the nation who finished in the top ten of that balloting in each of the past two seasons. During his three years at Michigan Carter has rightfully earned a label as college football's most dynamic individual performer. Please take a few moments to review his remarkable career on pp. 34-35 of this publication.

The University

Academically, Michigan ranks among the foremost universities in America. A survey of professional school deans not long ago rated U-M in the top 10 in 13 of the 18 professional areas surveyed, "the best overall record" in the words of The Los Angeles Times. The survey found "Five universities with outstanding reputations—Berkeley, Chicago, Columbia, Harvard and Michigan—have the greatest numbers of top-ranking professional schools."

Other recent surveys have found the following: 4,000 faculty members nationally ranked U-M among the top four universities; the College of Engineering was first for graduate level academics in three of seven fields surveyed; deans of business administration schools placed the employment value of a U-M M.B.A. degree among the top five and rated Michigan's executive programs among the top four; more top business executives earned degrees from U-M than from any other public college or university; and medical school faculty members ranked U-M among the top eight such schools.

U-M students appreciate this, evidently. The majority of students in 554 classes recently rated 90 percent of their courses as "excellent." Ninety percent of the classes rated the instructor as an excellent teacher. The U-M faculty survey noted the results are quite different from the stereotype of the large, "mass education" university one hears about.

Michigan's schools and colleges cover the spectrum of human knowledge. To them for an education have come more than 268,000 degree holders, including the three-man crew of Apollo 15. Last year 26 percent of the student body came from all the other states in the nation, while another 6.3 percent were from some 100 other countries.

During 1980-81 sponsored research volume at Michigan totaled $129,530,736. Projects ranged form abstract theoretical studies of the atom to methods of reducing the number and severity of highway accidents. The monthly survey of consumer sentiment is a nationally respected barometer of the nation's economic health. Practical holography or three-dimensional photography was invented at Michigan, while the scholarly renowned Middle English Dictionary is being compiled on the campus.

On the North Campus, the Phoenix Project has for three decades sought peaceful uses of atomic energy. A few hundred feet away, the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library houses the papers of one of Michigan's most famous alumni.

The Medical Center's 25 buildings comprise one of the largest concentrations of health care facilities in the world. The area includes one of the nation's major medical schools, the largest baccalaureate school of nursing, and the nation's first University Hospital.

Michigan's faculty includes 14 members of the National Academy of Sciences and many presidents of national scholarly organizations. The U-M library system is the fifth largest university system in the country, with more than five million volumes.

The University is truly a state resource and a national asset.

Harold T. Shapiro President

Harold T. Shapiro became the University of Michigan's tenth president on January 1, 1980. A professor of economics and public policy at Michigan, he is one of the nation's ablest young economists. He is known for his research and writing in economic forecasting, public policy analysis, and econometrics.

With Economics Department Chairman Saul H. Hymans, Shapiro for the past decade has directed the Research Seminar in Quantitative Economics, which produces highly respected forecasts of national and regional economic activity.

Shapiro has established a reputation as one of U-M's best classroom teachers since joining the faculty in 1964. He was a member of the University Budget Priorities Committee (1972-74) before chairing it until 1977. He also chaired the Department of Economics from 1974 to 1977. From then through 1979 he was vice-president for academic affairs and chairman of the U-M Budget Administration Committee.

For years he has had important connections with econometric model builders and forecasters throughout North America and Eastern and Western Europe. Over the last decade he has served as an economic advisor and consultant to key economic agencies of the U.S. and Canadian governments and the state of Michigan.

He has been senior research associate of the Brookings Institution, research advisor of the Bank of Canada, consultant to the U.S. Treasury, research consultant to the Economic Council of Canada, and a member of the Council of the American Statistical Association.

His bachelor's degree was earned at McGill University. M.A. and Ph.D. degrees followed at Princeton University.

Shapiro was a member of the high school swim and water polo teams and played hockey and basketball through those years in Montreal, his birthplace. President and Mrs. Shapiro and their four daughters are now American citizens.

Thomas J. Anton Faculty Representative

Tom Anton begins his fourth year as Michigan's faculty representative, the third person to hold that position since Ralph Aigler first was appointed in 1915. Anton, a professor of political science, replaced Marcus Plant, Michigan's distinguished professor of law and former president of the NCAA who retired after 24 years of service.

Anton, who received his master's and Ph.D. degrees from Princeton, was a four-letter winner in both baseball and basketball at Clark University in Massachusetts and co-captain of the basketball team. A resident scientist in Michigan Institute of Public Policy Studies, Anton's major athletic endeavor now is golf.

Don Canham
Athletic Director

Don Canham, one of this nation's most renowned athletic administrators, continues to keep Michigan's program at the forefront of collegiate athletics. Innovation and creativity have been at the heart of his extremely successful fourteen year administration.

When Canham was named the fifth athletic director in Michigan history in 1968, he launched a major direct mail and advertising program to sell football tickets, but he also established a series of fund-raising clubs, organized parking and concessions and developed a line of specialty items (souvenirs)...all of which became major sources of revenue.

Meanwhile, Canham has supervised a competitive athletic program that in 14 seasons has won 51 Big Ten championships (Michigan's total is a conference record 219). Additionally,'Michigan has broken numerous NCAA attendance records over the last five years.

Michigan's intercollegiate program includes 21 varsity sports for men and women with an annual budget in excess of $11 million. The department is self-sufficient.

Despite the eroding effects of inflation, Canham continues to expand and improve Michigan's impressive physical plant.

During the last decade Canham has earmarked more than $7 million for plant expansion and improvements. Additionally, he was a key mover in the $7.2 million construction of new recreational sports facilities that gave Michigan one of the largest indoor complexes in the nation, some 333,000 square feet.

Other projects completed in the last decade include: construction of a Sports Service Building, the Indoor Track/Tennis Building which is used for varsity and university recreational purposes; remodeling of Yost Fieldhouse into an 8,100-seat ice arena; construction of an all-weather outdoor track; construction of an artificial surface practice field with lights; improvements on the baseball stadium; a continuing renovation program for Michigan Stadium; and the construction of a new fieldhouse which contains an entire artificial surface football field, the only one of its kind in the nation. A new weight room and training facility for women athletics was also completed last spring.

Special events have kept Michigan's facilities operating at near capacity. Canham has scheduled a Slippery Rock-Shippensburg State and Slippery Rock-Wayne State football game at Michigan Stadium when the Wolverines squad was on the road. A Pro-Celebrity Golf Tournament held in conjunction with the Michigan Hall of Honor Night, The Michigan Golf Open, NIT basketball games, State High School Championships, and a complete and extensive Summer Sports Camp are just some of the many special programs that Canham has organized in his 14 years at the helm.

Building administrative and coaching staffs remains a priority. Promotions and retirements have forced complete turnovers in all but one sport, but the tradition of winning continues.

Nationally, Canham serves on various Big Ten and NCAA committees. He is invited by other universities and business groups to speak on promotion and administration. He has been elected to the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and the U.S. Track and Field Federation Hall of Fame. He has developed the first National Sports Promotion and Marketing Clinic.

Canham was Michigan's track captain and NCAA high jump champion during his undergraduate years. He served in the Army Air Force, coached and taught at Kankakee, Ill. High School, was an assistant track coach at Michigan for two years before being named head coach in 1948. His Wolverine teams won 12 Big Ten titles in 19 years. During this time he built a highly successful sports equipment business that was placed in trust upon his appointment as athletic director.

Canham and his wife Marilyn, have a son, Don Jr., and a daughter, Clare, both University of Michigan graduates.

Michigan's famed fight song, "The Victors," was written in 1898.

Of Colors, Song And Michigan

Michigan's athletic traditions date back more than a century ago. Students, as early as 1861, referred to themselves as Wolverines, and, of course, Michigan is known as the Wolverine state. The graduating class of 1867 selected Maize and Blue as the school colors. Michigan's famed fight song, "The Victors", was written in 1898 by Louis Elbel to commemorate a last-second, 12-11 victory over Chicago that produced the Wolverines' first Western Conference football championship. In 1903 a five-gallon jug used for drinking water was left in Minnesota and six years later the Gophers and Wolverines played a football game that became known as the battle for the "Little Brown Jug." When Coach Fritz Crisler arrived at Michigan in 1938 he wanted to "dress up the plain, black football helmet" used at that time. The result was the distinctive winged-helmet still used by today's Wolverines.

An 83-yard pass from Rick Leach to Jim Smith in the 1975 game with Purdue is the longest in Wolverine history.

The University of Michigan Fieldhouse

In December of 1980 Michigan's Athletic Department dedicated its new fieldhouse. The 72,000 square foot building contains an entire artificial covered football field. It is the largest such indoor facility in college athletics and it is capable of serving Michigan's entire athletic program.

The 1982
Outlook

1982 Prospectus

As Bo Schembechler gets prepared to start his 14th season at Michigan, the task before him is quite different than a year ago. When Schembechler entered the 1981 season, he found 16 starters and had 35 of the top 44 players returning from the 1980 contingent that went 10-2, a perfect 8-0 in Big Ten play, defeated Washington 23-6 in the Rose Bowl, and finished fourth in the final rankings.

It's now a year later, and many of the performers who were responsible for that 10-2 showing in 1980 and the 9-3 slate in '81 are gone. The Wolverines were hit particularly hard on offense where four first-team All-Americans have graduated. Butch Woolfolk, Michigan's all-time leading rusher, and three of his primary escorts over the year; tackles Bubba Paris and Ed Muransky and guard Kurt Becker, have graduated. In addition, graduation also has taken solid and dependable fullback Stan Edwards, the school's ninth all-time leading rusher. Replacing these players and rebuilding the running game are of prime importance.

Flanker Anthony Carter—he could set new NCAA career records for TD receptions and average yardage per opportunity.

Returning on the offensive side of the ball are two of the most productive players in Michigan history. Heisman Trophy candidate Anthony Carter, a flanker who finished 10th in the Heisman balloting as a sophomore and seventh last year (he and Georgia's Herschel Walker are the only two players in the nation to finish in the Top Ten of that balloting in each of the last two seasons), is back to close out what has already been a remarkable career. If Carter, who has averaged an amazing 17 yards every time he has touched the ball in his career, maintains the pace he has established in his three previous years, he will establish three new NCAA records (excluding bowl games); most TD catches in a career which Houston's Elmo Wright now holds at 34 (Carter has 25), best average per opportunity in all-purpose yardage with a minimum of 4,000 yards which Arizona's Theo Bell now holds at 15.6 (Carter is 17.0), and best average per opportunity minimum of 5,000 all-purpose yards which Nebraska's Johnny Rogers, the 1972 Heisman Trophy winner, holds with a 13.8 average (Carter is 17.0).

Junior quarterback Steve Smith, who shattered Michigan's single season total offense record last year with 2,335 (Rick Leach held the old mark at 1,894), is back to team up with Carter. The multi-talented Smith accounted for 27 touchdowns last year (15 passing and 12 rushing) and finished second behind Woolfolk in the rushing department with 674.

Defensively, the Wolverines are expected to be stronger in 1982. The Maize and Blue stop-troops permitted just 13.5 points per game last fall but their performance was not up to Michigan standards during the Schembechler regime. No member of the Michigan defense was named to the All-Big Ten first unit last season, a major departure from previous years (in each of Schembechler's previous 12 campaigns at Michigan at least two players per season were named to that unit).

Schembechler will miss tackle Tony Osbun, outside linebacker Ben Needham, corner Brian Carpenter and free safety Tony Jackson but he feels, as a whole, this unit will perform at a higher level of consistency. Robert Thompson is an outstanding outside backer while Paul Girgash and Mike Boren return at the inside posts in Michigan's 3-4 alignment. Keith Bostic is expected to be one of the nation's premier strong-safeties while Winfred Carraway appears ready to become a fine tackle.

Multi-talented QB Steve Smith

Center Tom Dixon

Tailback Larry Ricks

Following is a closer look at the Wolverines by position:

OFFENSE

Schembechler and his fine staff face a rebuilding job, especially with regard to the running game. Three starters on the offensive line, and two runners, who between them rushed for over 6,000 yards, have departed. Michigan lost six starters from a unit that averaged 29.6 points a game last year. However, the return of Carter, Smith and 16 other letterwinners provides a good nucleus.

RUNNING BACKS: One of the most experienced and game-tested tandems in the nation is gone. All-American tailback Butch Woolfolk, who led the Wolverines in rushing in each of the last three years and became Michigan's all-time leading ground-gainer with 3,861 yards, is gone as is fullback Stan Edwards, the school's ninth all-time leading ball-carrier with 2,206 yards. Woolfolk was a first-round selection of the New York Giants in last April's NFL Draft while Edwards went in the 4th round to the Houston Oilers. Senior Lawrence Ricks (5-10, 195), who rushed for 850 yards as a sophomore and 396 last year at the tailback post, is the most experienced returning runner. Sophomores Rick Rogers and Brian Mercer and junior Kerry Smith will also vie for playing time at tailback. The fullback spot will receive a lot of attention. Senior Jerald Ingram is the only experienced performer returning, and his playing time has been rather limited since suffering a knee injury in November of 1980. Junior Tom Hassel, Edward's backup last fall, has been moved to outside linebacker. Junior Greg Armstrong was moved from tailback to fullback during spring drills.

OFFENSIVE LINE: Tackles Ed Muransky (6-7, 275) and Bubba Paris (6-7, 278) and guard Kurt Becker (6-6, 255), a finalist for the Lombardi Award in '81, have all graduated. Senior Rich Strenger (6-7, 261) is expected to nail down one of the tackle positions and junior Stefan Humphries, a starter in 1981 as a sophomore, is expected to grab one of the starting guard spots. Junior Tom Dixon (6-2, 245) played very well as a starter in all twelve games last fall at center. The Wolverine coaching staff felt that by season's end, Dixon was the top center in the Big Ten. Junior Jerry Diorio split some playing time with Humphries at the one guard spot opposite Becker last fall. He should nail down a starting guard spot. Sophomore Art Balourdos is highly regarded by the coaching staff and will see backup duty at center and guard.

The tackle spot opposite Strenger is still open. Junior Ron Prusa, a backup to Paris last year, sophomore Clay Miller, a starter at defensive tackle in three games last year, and senior Tom Garrity are all in the picture.

QUARTERBACK: The Wolverines are solid here with the return of Steve Smith. The 6-0, 190 pounder started slowly last fall but came on strong as the season progressed and eventually stamped himself as one of the finest multi-talented QB's in school history. Smith completed 97 of 210 passes for 1,661 yards (the most ever in Michigan history) and 15 TD's while also rushing for 674 yards, a figure that ranked second on the squad behind Woolfolk. Smith's 2,335 yards in total offense shattered the previous season record in that category held by Rick Leach, second in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1978, who compiled a total of 1,894. Smith's added experience will be a plus to an offensive unit that will have to rely on him more this fall. Junior Dave Hall is expected to be the backup.

RECEIVERS: The Wolverines return a unit that is almost totally intact from last fall. The only loss is tight-end Norm Betts who decided to pass up his last year of eligibility to enter dental school. Betts, a first-team Academic All-American selection last year, split the tight-end spot last season with Craig Dunaway. Dunaway returns after ranking third on the squad last year in receptions with 11 for 152 yards and three TD's. Junior Milt Carthens and sophomore Eric Kattus are also fine tight-ends. Anthony Carter, a two-time first-team All-American, returns at the flanker post. Carter has caught 118 passes over the last three years for 2,232 yards and 29 TD's. Last year he had 50 receptions for 952 yards (19.0 average despite seeing double coverage all years). He has stamped himself as the top big play specialist in the nation, averaging an eye-opening 17.0 yards every time he has touched the ball. Junior Vince Bean returns at the split-end spot after catching 16 balls for 336 yards (21.0 avg.) last fall.

DEFENSE

Schembechler is a firm believer in the principle that defense is the name of the game. He has said more than a few times that, "You can't hope to be a good football team without a good defense." Statistically, the Wolverine stop-troops were a good unit last fall, yielding just 13.5 points per game, but by Schembechler's own high standards, their performance was below par. "People didn't really score against us, but too many opponents possessed the ball too effectively. We didn't break, but we bent far more than we have in the past."

The play of this unit will be more important this year in the overall success of the squad. Last year the Wolverine coaches knew that they had a potent offense that could outscore most teams. This year, especially early in the season, the defense might have to carry the burden until the offense, with an entirely new running game, gets untracked.

DEFENSIVE LINE: Senior Winfred Car-

Outside Linebacker Robert Thompson

Tackle Winfred Carraway

Strong Safety Keith Bostic

raway (6-2, 240) returns at one tackle spot. His ankle injuries last year hurt the overall performance of the line. He is Michigan's top defensive lineman and a solid year from him is a must. Sophomore Kevin Brooks, a converted linebacker, had an excellent spring at tackle and appears ready to gain a starting nod. Sophomore Mike Hammerstein will also see a good deal of playing time. At middle guard, sophomore Al Sincich, a starter in five of the last six games, is back. Sophomore Joe Gray, a converted linebacker, could also see some playing time.

LINEBACKERS: Michigan returns its top two tacklers from 1981, junior Mike Boren and senior Paul Girgash. Boren and Girgash, who both start at the inside in Michigan's four-linebacker alignment, ranked one-two last year in tackles with 152 and 136 respectively. Girgash received honorable mention All-American honors. Other prominent names on the inside are senior Jim Herrmann and junior Tim Anderson. Sophomores Mike Mallory, Jeff Akers and Phil Lewandowski all had fine springs and showed improvement.

On the outside, senior Robert Thompson, a honorable mention All-American, returns. Thompson, the defensive captain last fall, suffered shoulder and hand injuries that limited his playing time significantly over the final half of the '81 campaign. He's expected to be one of the premier outside backers in the nation this fall. Outside linebacker Ben Needham, a starter who was named defensive MVP in the Bluebonnet Bowl, has graduated. He was a 7th round selection in the NFL Draft by Cincinnati. Junior Carlton Rose and senior Mike Lemirande, both very capable and starters at times over the past two seasons, are the leading candidates to fill Needham's spot. Junior Rodney Lyles and junior Tom Hassel, a backup at fullback last fall, are also in the picture.

DEFENSIVE SECONDARY: Michigan lost two-year starter Tony Jackson at free safety and Brian Carpenter, a two-year starter at one of the corners, to graduation. Keith Bostic, an honorable mention All-American last year, holds down the strong safety spot, a post the Wolverine coaches feel he could play as well as anyone in the nation this fall. Due to injuries at the corner spots last year, many players had the opportunity to receive some playing time. Senior Marion Body, senior Jerry Burgei and junior Evan Cooper all started at least two games at cornerback last fall. Sophomore Brad Cochran had an excellent spring and enters the fall battling Body and Burgei for a starting role. John Lott is a fine backup performer. The major battle in the secondary will come at the free safety post. Cooper and Rich Hewlett (a converted quarterback who started at that post as a freshman vs. Ohio State in 1979 and for two games in '80) are the primary candidates.

Punter Don Bracken

KICKING GAME

Michigan will return the same tandem, Ali Haji-Sheikh as the place-kicker and Don Bracken as the punter, for the third straight year. Haji-Sheikh is 19 for 31 in the field goal department over the past two campaigns while booming most kickoffs in the endzone. Bracken will be trying to break a record for the third straight season. As a freshman, he averaged a school record 42.7, a figure that ranked 15th nationally. Last year he broke his own mark, averaging 43.3, a figure that ranked 14th in the nation.

Head Coach
14th Season

Record: 123-24-3

Glenn E. "Bo" Schembechler, the dean of Big Ten coaches, has earned the right to be called one of college football's all-time great coaches. He smiles in a very humble way when he is described in that manner, and he would be the first to tell you that he isn't the reason for the high level of success that the Michigan football program has achieved. He would speak in glowing terms of his coaching staff and of the fine student-athletes he has had the opportunity to coach. That's the type of man he is. His loyalty to the University of Michigan and the outstanding football program he has, had a huge hand in forming what was dramatically proven last January when he turned down the richest contract in the history of college athletics, as offered by Texas A&M. His loyalty to Michigan, is matched only by the success he has achieved at the Ann Arbor campus. One can't deny that he has been the major reason for the success of the Michigan football program in the last thirteen seasons. The following achievements only have to be listed to see that this is indeed one of the very finest coaches in the nation.

- ★ He has a career won-lost record at Michigan of 123-24-3, a sparkling .837 winning percentage. Including his six year tenure as coach at Miami of Ohio (1963-68), he has an overall record of 163-41-6 in 19 years as head coach, a figure that ranks third among all active coaches.
- ★ He has never had one losing season in 19 years as a head coach. Only twice (1967 at Miami and 1979 at Michigan) has he suffered more than three setbacks in a given year.
- ★ Eight of his thirteen teams at Michigan have won ten or more games in a season.
- ★ Twelve of his thirteen teams at Michigan have been ranked in the Top Ten in the final wire service polls (AP and/or UPI).
- ★ Nine of his thirteen teams have either won or tied for the Big Ten championship.
- ★ Nine of his thirteen Wolverine units have gone to bowl games. Six Rose Bowl appearances and trips to the Orange Bowl, Gator Bowl and Bluebonnet Bowl are among his achievements. Michigan has appeared in a bowl game each of the last seven years.
- ★ During the 1970's his regular season record of 96-10-3 was the finest in the nation.
- ★ He has a sparkling .888% winning record against Big Ten opponents.
- ★ He was named national Coach of the Year in 1969 as well as Mid-American Coach of the Year in 1965 and Big Ten Coach of the Year in 1972 and 1980.
- ★ During the 1970's, his teams were ranked eighth or higher in seven national statistical categories including first in won-lost record (96-10-3), first in rushing defense (106.6), first in total defense (226.3) and first in scoring defense (8.04).
- ★ Twenty-nine different Michigan players have achieved first-team All-American honors under Schembechler.
- ★ At least one Wolverine player per season has achieved first-team All-American status in each of his thirteen years at Michigan.

★ Sixty-nine different players have earned first-team All-Big Ten honors at Michigan during his coaching reign.

★ His 123 career wins at Michigan make him the second winningest all-time coach in school history, next to Fielding Yost's 165 victories.

Schembechler was a prep football all-stater at Barberton (Ohio) High School. He continued his football career at Miami of Ohio where he was an offensive tackle for three seasons. He played under George Blackburn and Woody Hayes. He was also a fine left-hander for the Miami baseball team.

He graduated in 1951 and received a master's degree in 1952 at Ohio State where he served as a graduate assistant coach. After serving in the U.S. Army, he was a line coach at Presbyterian College in 1954, a line coach at Bowling Green in 1955, then joined Ara Parseghian's staff at Northwestern in 1958 before serving for the next five seasons as an assistant at Ohio State. He was appointed head football coach at Miami of Ohio in 1963, a position he held until taking over the Michigan program prior to the 1969 campaign.

Schembechler annually conducts a coaching clinic for high school coaches that is regarded as one of the most informative such events in the nation. He also attends a series of alumni gatherings during the summer. Schembechler is featured in a weekly television show in Detroit and on a state network called "Michigan Replay."

Bo and his wife, Millie, have four children; Chip, Geoff, Matt and Shemy.

JERRY HANLON
Quarterback Coach

Jerry Hanlon, the senior staff member, assumed a new role as Michigan's quarterback coach this past June after serving for the previous 13 years as the Wolverines' offensive line coach, a duty for which he attained national recognition. Hanlon, from North Bend, Ohio, was an offensive halfback during the 1953-55 seasons at Miami. He played halfback on the Redskin teams that won two Mid-American Conference titles. His college coach was Ara Parseghian.

1981 Season In Review

Wisconsin

September 12, Madison, WI
Wisconsin 21, Michigan 14
Attendance: 68,733

Michigan	0	7	7	0—14
Wisconsin	0	14	7	0—21

Ranked #1 by almost every pre-season poll, Michigan learned a fast lesson in humility at Madison. Wisconsin rolled up an astonishing 439-229 advantage in total offense, and the Wolverines contributed three turnovers to their defeat.

Steve Smith, making his first varsity start at quarterback, ran four yards for the Wolverines' first score of the season, but the Badgers ended four years of frustration against Michigan with a tying touchdown 3:46 before halftime. The score ended Michigan's no-touchdown string, carried over from 1980, at 361 minutes, 21 seconds—the equivalent of 24 quarters of play. The Badgers took the lead on the final play of the half, but Michigan answered when Butch Woolfolk raced 89 yards for a touchdown in the third stanza, the second longest run in Wolverine annals. When the Badgers struck back immediately, however, Michigan went to the air, and Smith suffered three interceptions, the last one snuffing out the Wolverines' final drive in the game's waning seconds.

Woolfolk finished the game with 119 yards, his third consecutive 100— plus yard effort, but the Badgers stopped the Michigan aerial game, limiting Smith to just three completions and Anthony Carter to one reception. The contest marked Michigan's first loss in a season opener on the road since 1881, and set the Wolverines' backs to the wall in their effort to defend the conference title.

Michigan	0	7	12	6—25

In a total reversal from the previous week, Michigan dominated the #1 Fighting Irish, and gained revenge for their heartbreaking losses of 1979 and 1980 in front of an ABC-TV national audience.

After Notre Dame failed on a fake field goal late in the first quarter, the Wolverines dropped a bomb on the Irish when Steve Smith tossed a 71-yard scoring pass to Anthony Carter, the first TD aerial of the sophomore quarterback's career. He accumulated his second touchdown toss when Carter used an amazing fake to turn a first down pass into a touchdown midway through the third period. The Wolverine defense, which held Notre Dame without a first down for 32 minutes from the 2nd to 4th quarters, held again, and moments later, Lawrence Ricks crashed into the end-zone to send Michigan ahead by 19 points. Smith's six-yard scoring run in the final stanza put the contest out of reach.

Butch Woolfolk paced Michigan's offense with 139 rushing yards and the Wolverine defense limited the Irish to 70 yards on the ground. Carter gained 99 yards with 3 receptions, and Smith totaled 167 yards in total offense, but the ABC Player-of-the Game award went to linebacker Mike Boren, whose aggressive play spearheaded the Wolverine defensive effort which held the powerful Notre Dame offense to 213 total yards.

Five Wolverines received first-team All-American honors last year.

The Michigan defense was outstanding in the 25-7 win over then No. 1 ranked Notre Dame. The Wolverine stop troops yielded just 213 yards in total offense to the Irish. Here Cedric Coles sacks Irish QB Tim Koegel.

Navy

September 26, Ann Arbor, MI
Michigan 21, Navy 16
Attendance: 105,213

Navy	0	6	7	3—16
Michigan	7	7	7	0—21

Doug James sacked Navy quarterback Marco Pagnanelli with less than two minutes to play, halting a last-ditch drive and securing a close Michigan victory. The Midshipmen had driven to a first down on the Michigan 23-yard line, but their effort to erase completely a 15-point Wolverine lead was quashed by three sacks from the determined Michigan defense.

The Wolverines jumped out to an early 14-0 lead on rushing touchdowns by Butch Woolfolk and Steve Smith, but the disciplined Navy squad refused to fold and cut the advantage to 14-6 at the half. Evan Cooper intercepted a Middie pass early in the third period, and his return to the Navy 34 set up a TD pass from Smith to Vince Bean, the sophomore's first touchdown ever at Michigan. Navy remained calm under the pressure, however, and returned to its ball-control attack with enabled the Middies to run more offensive plays than Michigan on the afternoon.

Woolfolk led the Wolverine attack with 117 yards, his fifth consecutive game over the century mark. Smith enjoyed the best passing day of his young career, hitting 10 of 15 passes, three of them to Anthony Carter, before Carter left the game early in the second period with an ankle injury. With the status of their All-American receiver uncertain, and a conference loss already tainting their record, the Wolverines awaited the challenge of eight straight league contests.

Tailback Butch Woolfolk was brilliant during the first half of the 1981 campaign. He rushed for 100 or more yards in each of the first five games, giving him seven straight 100-yard rushing performances, a new Michigan record. He was especially impressive in the 38-20 win over Michigan State, rushing for 253 yards.

Michigan finished the 1981 season ranked 10th in the final UPI Coaches poll.

Michigan, which had not yielded a point in the first quarter all season, fell behind the Hoosiers quickly, and was forced to battle from behind. In their biggest offensive outburst of the season thus far, the Wolverines responded with 527 yards in total offense, and buried Indiana under the running of Butch Woolfolk and the passing of Steve Smith.

Smith raced in from three yards out to tie the game in the opening stanza, capping a 74-yard drive entirely on the ground. A 6-yard Smith-to-Craig Dunaway aerial put the Wolverines ahead, and, with the defense having solved Babe Laufenberg's passing attack to get the ball back, Michigan rolled 61 yards to a Woolfolk TD dive and an 11-point lead. An Ali Haji-Sheikh field goal and a 24-yard scoring scamper by Woolfolk extended the advantage to 30-10, and Lawrence Ricks finished the day's scoring with a two-yard plunge early in the final period.

Woolfolk tied a Michigan record with his sixth consecutive 100-yard game, compiling 176 yards on the ground, while Smith and B. J. Dickey combined for 190 passing yards. Anthony Carter and Stan Edwards each snared 3 tosses for the improving Wolverine offense, which was stopped only twice the entire afternoon.

For the second consecutive week, the Michigan ground assault outgunned an opponent's aerial attack, and Butch Woolfolk's career-high 253 yards rushing enabled the Wolverines to run away from arch-rival Michigan State in the second half.

An early fumble gave the Spartans the initiative to jump out to a 7-0 lead, but a safety and Anthony Carter's dazzling 23-yard run on a reverse put Michigan on top. Steve Smith's TD dive capped an 80-yard second quarter drive and gave the Wolverines a nine-point lead, but for the second straight year, MSU came back. Bryan Clark, on his way to only the third 300-yard passing day against a Schembechler-coached Michigan team, tossed a scoring pass, and a Wolverine fumble set up a Morten Andersen field goal, giving the Spartans the half-time lead. Michigan's third fumble led to another Andersen three-pointer, but Jerry Burgei's interception at the Michigan 17-yard line stopped the following MSU march, and Woolfolk and Smith brought the Wolverines back on an 83-yard drive, capped by Lawrence Ricks' three-yard run. The two-point conversion pass from Carter to Smith fooled the Spartans, and, after Andersen missed a field goal, Smith's 37-yard TD sprint clinched the victory. A second Ricks TD run finished the scoring and gave the Wolverines a 2-1 league record and a solid second-place standing.

The Hawkeyes, upset victors over Nebraska and UCLA, used a tough defense and three Tom Nichol field goals to stun Michigan. A fumbled punt gave Iowa a break in the opening quarter, and, when the Wolverine defense held inside the 5-yard line, Nichol booted the first of his three-pointers. After the Michigan offense stalled, Nichol booted another field goal to open a 6-0 Iowa lead.

The Wolverines put together their only sustained drive of the day in the second quarter, and Steve Smith hit Anthony Carter for a 17-yard score which gave Michigan a 7-6 edge at the half. Nichol kicked his third field goal with 2 minutes remaining in the third stanza, and Iowa's ball-control offense and swarming defense prevented the Wolverines from having the ball for more than two minutes at a time in their final possessions. A holding penalty negated a pass to the Hawkeye 40-yard line with 1½ minutes left, and Michigan failed to move the ball again.

Anthony Carter provided the lone bright spot for the Michigan offense with 5 receptions, but Butch Woolfolk was held to 56 yards, breaking his record 7-game 100-yard string. Iowa ran 17 more plays than the Wolverines, and controlled the ball for an astounding 37 minutes. Bo Schembechler assessed the Michigan Rose Bowl chances as "slim to none," and added that "it would take a miracle to get us there."

The Wolverines needed a strong all-around performance to bounce back from the Iowa defeat, and both offensively and defensively dominated Northwestern. With freshmen Al Sincich and Clay Miller making their first career starts on the defensive line, and Mike Lemirande and Carlton Rose getting their initial starts in 1981 at linebacker, the fresh Michigan stop-troops held the Wildcats to 283 yards in total offense while recording the shutout.

The Wolverines scored on their first possession on a 24-yard pass from Steve Smith to Anthony Carter, who caught the ball on the 10-yard line, and circled the entire Wildcat defense to go in for the score. Smith threw his second TD pass minutes later, this time hitting Norm Betts on a 52-yard bomb, the longest reception of the tight end's career. Mike Boren's fumble recovery at the Northwestern 32-yard line set up Lawrence Ricks' 5-yard touchdown run, and Bob Bergeron, filling in for the injured Ali Haji-Sheikh, booted a 24-yard field goal for a 24-0 lead at the half. Smith's 13-yard TD run and Ricks' 60-yard scoring burst completed the scoring.

Woolfolk's 106-yard performance made him Michigan's all-time leading ground gainer, passing Rob Lytle's 3,317-yard record. During the post-game celebration came news of the first step of the miracle-to-be: Wisconsin and Iowa had each been defeated; the Wolverines returned to their second-place standing in the conference with four critical contests remaining.

For the second consecutive year, Michigan went to the air to down the Gophers and retain possession of the Little Brown Jug. Steve Smith completed 13 passes for a career-high 237 yards, and Anthony Carter snared eight of them for 154 yards, also a personal best.

The Wolverines struck on their first possession on an Ali Haji-Sheikh field goal, and raised their lead to 10-0 when Smith hit Stan Edwards with a 10-yard scoring pass, capping a 65-yard drive, 48 yards of which came on Smith-to-Carter completions. The Gophers narrowed the lead to 3 points, but Smith found Edwards for a 1-yard TD aerial 1 minute before halftime to rebuild Michigan's advantage. Another Haji-Sheikh field goal and a 25-yard TD reception by Carter put the game out of Minnesota's reach, and Lawrence Ricks closed the scoring on a one-yard touchdown dive.

Michigan's offense rolled up 445 yards on the afternoon, and Smith's 3 touchdown passes tied a Michigan single-game record. Carter's 213 all-purpose yards was the highest accumulation of his career.

In one of the most incredible turnarounds ever at Michigan Stadium, the Wolverines spotted Illinois a 14-point first quarter lead, then roared back with 63 unanswered points to wreck the Fighting Illini. Steve Smith led the assault by accounting for 6 touchdowns, rushing for 3 and becoming only the second Wolverine ever to toss a trio of TD aerials in consecutive games.

With the Wolverines trailing 21-7 early in the second stanza, Jerry Burgei's goalline interception ignited an 84-yard Michigan scoring drive, with Smith diving in from the 1-yard line to cut the lead to 7 points. The Wolverines took the lead for good on a TD pass and Smith's 42-yard touchdown run on a quarterback draw with only 19 seconds remaining in the half.

Eason threw for an all-time record 386 yards against the Wolverines, but Michigan responded with 645 yards in total offense. The victory, combined with Ohio State's loss to Minnesota, placed Michigan in a tie with Wisconsin for the Big Ten lead.

With only two weeks remaining in the conference schedule, Michigan needed two wins, combined with a Wisconsin loss to either Iowa or Minnesota, to return to the Rose Bowl. At West Lafayette, the Wolverines exploded for three touchdowns in the fourth quarter to pull out a victory in a sloppy game.

Michigan spotted the Boilermakers an early 3-0 lead when Purdue capitalized on one of two first quarter Wolverine turnovers. A 26-yard Steve Smith-to-Craig Dunaway pass put Michigan in front, but Purdue recaptured the lead when Jeff Feulner, whose 106-yard performance was the first such effort against the Wolverines in 19 games, bulled in from the five-yard line. A pass interference call gave Michigan a first down at the Boilermaker 29, and Smith put the Wolverines on top with a 26-yard TD scamper on the option play. The Maize and Blue defense, which limited Scott Campbell to 125 yards passing on the day, forced a punt, and Michigan drove 63 yards to score on Butch Woolfolk's 1-yard dive. Lawrence Ricks' 5-yard TD run capped the scoring.

Anthony Carter sparked Michigan's offense with 7 receptions for 103 yards, and Woolfolk added 82 rushing yards. When news came from Madison that Iowa had knocked off the Badgers, the improbable miracle had occurred: Michigan's fate, for the first time all season, lay in its own hands. A victory over Ohio State would give the Wolverines undisputed possession of the Big Ten title and a second consecutive trip to Pasadena.

In a game of squandered opportunities, the Wolverines drove inside the Ohio State 10-yard line 4 times, but came away with only 3 field goals, thereby missing their biggest opportunity: the Big Ten championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl. Michigan outgained the Buckeyes by 110 total yards, but 4 turnovers, 3 of them interceptions deep in OSU territory, dashed the Maize and Blue title hopes.

The first of Ali Haji-Sheikh's trio of 3-pointers gave Michigan an early lead, but an interception on the Buckeye 10-yard line prevented the Wolverines from extending their advantage, and started an 82-yard OSU touchdown march. Michigan moved to the Ohio State 6-yard line early in the third period, and Haji-Sheikh's second field goal narrowed the gap to 7-6. Moments later, Tony Jackson intercepted an Art Schlichter aerial, setting up another field goal for a 9-7 lead. The Wolverines were unable to add a clinching score, however, and after another OSU interception, this time in the Buckeye end-zone, Schlichter drove his team 80 yards for the winning touchdown.

Anthony Carter accumulated 206 all-purpose yards to spark the Michigan attack, and captured ABC-TV Player-of-the-Game honors. Steve Smith became the first Wolverine ever to account for over 2,000 yards in total offense in a single season as he raised his mark to 2,119. Shortly after the game, the Wolverines learned that they would make their seventh consecutive post-season appearance, facing UCLA in the Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston.

UCLA	0	0	7	7 — 14
Michigan	10	0	3	20 — 33

In the game billed as a 'mini-Rose Bowl,' the Wolverines came out smelling sweet on New Year's eve. Michigan's defense limited the powerful UCLA attack to 195 total yards, and held the Bruins to just 33 yards on the ground. The Wolverines led all the way after Ali Haji-Sheikh's 24-yard field goal, set up by Butch Woolfolk's 52-yard run, produced a 3-0 advantage. With a minute remaining in the first quarter, Steve Smith spotted Anthony Carter behind the Bruin secondary, and the resulting 50-yard scoring bomb upped the lead to 10 points. Michigan dominated the rest of the half, yielding only 58 total yards to UCLA, but 12 penalties forced the Maize and Blue to settle for a 10-0 edge at intermission.

The Bruins narrowed the gap to 10-7, scoring on their first possession of the third quarter, but the Wolverines responded immediately, marching 52 yards before Haji-Sheikh kicked a 47-yard field goal, the longest of his career. UCLA again drove into Michigan territory, but two penalties and Winfred Carraway's sack of Bruin quarterback Tom Ramsey ended the march, and the Pacific 10 runners-up never again had a chance to take the lead. The Wolverines moved 74 yards to Woolfolk's 1-yard touchdown run, then, after UCLA had cut the lead to 19-14, raced 80 yards in seven plays, with Smith scoring from nine yards out on the option play, to clinch the victory. B.J. Dickey's touchdown run in the final minute iced the triumph.

Woolfolk closed his brilliant career at Michigan by gaining 186 yards rushing, bringing his four-year total to 3,861 and earning game M.V.P. honors. Steve Smith's 152 passing yards gave him the school single-season aerial record with 1,661, as well as adding to his total offense mark. Anthony Carter grabbed six receptions for 127 yards, and the Wolverines left Houston looking forward to the new year.

★ MICHIGAN FOOTBALL ★

An Unmatched Tradition of Excellence

Michigan went 56 consecutive games without a loss from 1901-1908.

Football tradition is built gradually, woven piece by piece over the years. It is earned over time. Michigan's outstanding football tradition is one that has been built during the course of 102 seasons of competition. The success achieved over that period of time clearly labels the Wolverines' football program as one that doesn't take a back seat to any other in the nation. Trying to draw out achievements in what has been a sea of success isn't easy, but here are some of the most notable Michigan accomplishments.

- ★ Their 632 career victories ranks fourth in the nation. That win total is the most of any team west of the Allegheny Mountains. Their overall winning percentage of .743 is the third highest in the country.
- ★ Eighty-two Wolverine players have been honored with first-team All-American status.
- ★ Sixteen Michigan players and four Wolverine coaches have been inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.
- ★ Michigan has captured 30 Big Ten titles in football, the most of any conference member.
- ★ Michigan won the first Rose Bowl game in 1902 defeating Stanford 49-0. The Wolverines have played in nine other Rose Bowls since, including a 23-6 win over Washington in 1981.

THE SCHEMBECHLER ERA

– Making the Michigan Football Tradition Even Richer

Bo Schembechler, the fourteenth head coach at Michigan, has more than added to the rich Wolverine football tradition during his 13 years at the helm. Here are some of the more notable achievements of the Schembechler era at Michigan.

- ★ Nine Big Ten titles in 13 years. Only Fielding Yost with ten league titles accomplished more at Michigan.
- ★ A 123-24-3 (83.0%) overall record. His record against Big Ten teams in his 13 years at the helm is 89-13-1 (86.9%).
- ★ Twelve of his 13 Michigan teams have ended the season ranked in the Top Ten.
- ★ Nine of his 13 Michigan squads have gone to bowl games, including each of the last seven.
- ★ Twenty-nine of Michigan's 82 All-Americans have played under Schembechler.
- ★ Michigan's 96-10-3 regular season record during the decade of the 1970's was the best of any team in the nation.
- ★ Eight of his thirteen teams have won ten or more games in a season.

Michigan has registered 318 shutouts among its 632 All-Time victories.

Michigan Football Awards

Each year, three special awards are given to players on the Michigan football team. The awards are the John F. Maulbetsch Award, the Meyer Morton Award, and the Frederick C. Matthaei Scholarship Award.

Maulbetsch Award

The John F. Maulbetsch Award is given to the freshman football candidate after spring practice on the basis of desire, character, capacity for leadership and future success both on and off the gridiron. It was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1954 in honor of the late John F. Maulbetsch, All-American halfback on the 1914 team.

Meyer Morton Award

The Meyer Morton Award is given to the football player who shows greatest development and most promise as a result of the annual spring practice. The award is given in honor of the late Meyer Morton, noted Big Ten official.

Matthaei Award

The Frederick C. Matthaei Award is given to the junior-to-be gridder who has displayed leadership, drive, and achievement on the athletic field and in the classroom. The award was established by Frederick C. Matthaei in 1968.

Ron Simpkins' 516 career tackles is tops on the All-Time list at Michigan.

History of Scoring

Before 1883 there were no numerical values attached to touchdowns, goals, etc. In determining the winner, such values as four touchdowns equaling one field goal and one touchdown equaling two safeties were established. Walter Camp established the first numerical values which were changed over the years to better represent their importance and difficulty in achieving.

The University of Michigan Marching Band

The Michigan Marching Band enters the 1982 season as one of the most active and most respected bands in America. The director of the Michigan Marching Band is Eric A. Becher, now in his third year of leadership. Before assuming the director's post, Mr. Becher earned Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the University of Michigan School of Music and was himself a member of the Marching Band for four years.

This season's schedule will be another demanding one for members of the band. In addition to preparing and performing new pre-game and half-time shows for all six of Michigan's home football games, the Marching Band will play numerous concert performances, pep rallies, and parades. The band will also accompany the football team two "away" games – Notre Dame, September 18, and Ohio State, November 20. And the Michigan band always anticipates accompanying the team to a post-season bowl game.

Another highlight of the 1982 season will be Homecoming, October 30, when several hundred Michigan Band alumni will return to the gridiron for their annual "Blast from the Past" during half-time of the Minnesota game.

The Michigan Marching Band's tradition of excellence is longstanding. First appearing on a Michigan football field during the 1896 season with just a handful of musicians, the current Marching Band numbers 225 performers. The Michigan Marching Band is the only band to have played at the Rose Bowl, Orange Bowl, Gator Bowl, and Super Bowl games.

Through the years, the Michigan Band has always been in wide demand for concert appearances, pep rallies, parades and recordings. The Marching Band's best-selling album "Halftime Classics" is currently available, with proceeds going to scholarship funds.

In addition to Director Becher, this year's band staff will include four part-time assistants and a student Business Manager, Librarian, and Equipment Manager. The Voice of the Michigan Band is Carl Grapentine, now in his thirteenth season.
